

ZERO POINT TACTICAL TRAINING

NO FAIL TRAINING

Zero Point's philosophy is to train hard and fight easy. All courses are organized to provide maximum practical training in order to promote retention of the information and skills taught. The pace of training is aggressive and structured according to unit specific requirements or based on the advertised training objectives associated with each course of instruction.

Dates for Tactical Training are scheduled up to one year in advance. Tactical Training is conducted at the customer's location via a Mobile Training Team (MTT) or at the Zero Point training facility. Zero Point will work with your organization to coordinate the proper facilities and ranges to conduct the course and to identify specific requirements.

Contact Zero Point today to schedule a tactical training course!
